

County of Santa Rosa

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Rev. Glyn Lowery, a native and life-long resident of Santa Rosa County, has been the pastor of the Pace Assembly of God since the fall of 1970 replacing his father, Glyn (Bo) Lowery, Sr.

WHEREAS, during his thirty-six (36) year tenure as Pastor, the Pace Assembly of God has grown from 140 worshippers on Sunday to a physical plant with a sanctuary/auditorium with capacity of 2,250; a prayer chapel with seating capacity of 1,100; a family life center with a full basketball court and gymnasium; a two-story educational building housing twenty-five (25) classrooms; and a pastoral care administrative/office center; and assorted recreational facilities and other buildings for ministry; and

WHEREAS, through the thirty-six years of growth and change, Brother Glyn Lowery, along with his helpmate Sister Jan, communicated the vision; provided inspired, capable leadership, and empowered and nurtured the congregation so that all could be accomplished; yet, through it all, individual needs were met; lives were changed; bodies, minds, and souls were healed; and God given much Glory by His faithful servants, Glyn and Jan Lowery.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Santa Rosa County Board of Commissioners in recognition of the thirty-six (36) years of ministry as Pastor of the Pace Assembly of God does hereby declare Sunday July 16, 2006 as
